

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Mike Dilbeck

Response Ability

1. Do situations in your life now occur for you as opportunities vs. threats or complaints?
2. Are you empowered to act in a situation where you see something happening that goes against what you know is “right?”
3. Are you empowered to continue educating yourself to have more skills to intervene in situations?
4. Are you empowered to share this conversation with others so that they, too, are empowered?
5. What specific opportunities do you now see that you can intervene in some way and make a difference? In your chapter? On your campus? With your friends? In your community? In your life?
