

INTRODUCTION

PETE MOCKAITIS

At this time, will you please take a moment to turn your cell phones to “silent” or “off” and refrain from text messaging during the program in consideration of our speaker and our audience. Thank you.

My name is _____. I am (leadership position or organization), and it’s my pleasure to welcome you.

This program is sponsored by (list organizations).

At 26, Pete Mockaitis (Muh - KITE - iss) has already touched thousands in his roles as speaker, author and consultant. Pete’s work has enhanced Fortune 100 corporations, high-growth startups, major nonprofits and assorted student groups.

Having led nine student organizations, he holds the conviction that students have the power to make huge impact right now—and that there’s no need to wait for “someday when we become leaders.” This conviction led him to write The Student Leader’s Field Guide while a student at the University of Illinois.

Pete began his “grown-up” career at The Bridgespan Group and Bain & Company, a firm CNN has called “the elite in the already elite field of management consultants.” He now runs the Launch Point Institute, a research and training organization that equips incoming college freshmen for adulthood’s new challenges. His latest book, Team Up: Becoming Accountable to your Dreams, released to bookstores nationwide in December 2009.

Please join me in welcoming Pete Mockaitis!
