

INTRODUCTION

TRAVIS APGAR

At this time, will you please take a moment to turn your cell phones to “silent” or “off” and refrain from text messaging during the program in consideration of our speaker and our audience. Thank you.

My name is _____. I am (leadership position or organization), and it’s my pleasure to welcome you.

This program is sponsored by (list organizations).

Travis Apgar is the Robert G. Engel Associate Dean of Students at Cornell University. Educator, writer and consultant, Travis has been a featured speaker at conferences and on college campuses across the country, talking with thousands of students, faculty, administrators and coaches on topics which include leadership, community development, recruitment, alumni relations and hazing prevention. He is a regular contributor to the National Hazing Prevention Week Resource Guide, and assisted with the development of the 2007 NCAA Hazing Prevention Handbook. Travis also appears in Haze the documentary released by the Gordie Foundation.

Travis served on the Board of Directors for the Northeast Greek Leadership Association for eight years, and has been an active alumni volunteer for his fraternity. He has been recognized as an outstanding professional in the field of student affairs, and is considered an authority on hazing prevention.

Please join me in welcoming Travis Apgar!
