

keep Friendship alive

erica upshaw

Everyone deserves to have a good time in college...but making good decisions and keeping friends alive needs to be our first priority.

In this keynote, you will empower yourself to take action, talk to your peers and question the use of alcohol and drugs in your campus community.