

Joe Bertolino

INTRODUCTION

Tonight's program is sponsored by:

At this time, would you please turn your cell phones to silent or OFF in consideration of our speaker and our audience. Thank you.

Joe Bertolino is currently the Vice President for Student Life and Chair of the Department of Student Personnel at Queens College in New York City. An author, lecturer and teacher, Joe has presented more than 300 programs at more than 150 campuses and conferences.

Joe is a student affairs professional. He is a fraternity man, and he's gay. This program will explore diversity, including his experiences of living in a straight world, from the discrimination he's faced to the challenges involved with telling his family and friends. Please welcome Joe Bertolino.